

TWERPS

The West End Rambling for Pleasure Society

Sunday 12th April 2015

We will be back from holiday for this walk and looking forward to a stroll in the Surrey countryside. This 8 mile walk has fairly easy climbs and just a few stiles. There will be patches of mud in places so sticks could be useful.

To reach the car park, coming from West End, go through Pirbright and onto the A324 heading towards Ash. After passing a roundabout with Henley Business Park over to the left continue on to the second turning on the left (School Lane) to meet the A323. Go left here then right just before a church into Westwood Lane and continue on through Flexford to meet the A31 slip-road. Turn right here to pass under the A31 and about 300 yards down the hill turn right into the road called The Street at Puttenham. Pass the church on the left and, just before the pub (The Good Intent), turn left into Suffield Lane and continue for a further 1¼ miles to the car park at Puttenham Common on the right and proceed up to the picnic area.

Please meet at the usual starting time of 10 a.m. at the car park; there will be a stop for the usual 'elevensies' en route and we should be back at the car park at about 2:30 p.m..
